If you are not satisfied with our response, you have the right to file a complaint with the competent authority.

11. HOW DO WE USE COOKIES AND ANALYSIS TOOLS ON THE SITES

11.1. What are cookies

Cookies mean small text files placed on the device you use to access the Sites. These files contain the information about your actions and preferences for a certain period (for example, name to log in the protected sections of the Sites, language, font size and other display settings), so that you do not have to adjust these settings every time you visit the Sites or view their pages.

The Sites use the following types of cookies:

- strictly necessary cookies/technical cookies: these cookies are necessary for the Sites operation; among other things, they allow to identify your hardware and software, including the type of your browser;
- statistical/analytical cookies: these cookie files allow to recognize users, count their number and collect information, such as operations you perform on the Sites, including information about the web pages you have visited and the content you receive;
- technical cookies: these cookies collect the information about how users interact with the Sites, which makes it possible to identify errors and test new features to improve the performance of the Sites.

11.2. How long are cookies stored on your device?

We use the information contained in the cookies only for the above purposes, after which the collected data will be stored on your device for a period that may depend on the appropriate type of cookies, but not exceeding the period required to reach their goal, after which they will be automatically removed from your system.

11.3. Cookie Management

When you visit the Sites for the first time, your consent to the use of cookies may be requested. If, after giving your consent, you have changed your decision, you can delete the cookies stored in your browser (usually it can be done in the browser settings, for more information, please refer to the browser operation manual or the website of its developer). After that, a pop-up window will appear with a request for consent, and you can make a different choice.

The use of cookies is not a compulsory condition for the use of the Sites, however, these files simplify navigation through the Sites. Cookies can be deleted or blocked, however, in this case, many functions of the website may work unsatisfactorily. You can also change your browser settings to accept or decline all cookies or the cookies only from the specific Sites by default.

11.4. What analysis tools do we use

We use the following web analysis services in order to optimize the Sites:

1) Google Analytics

Service provider – Google Inc., 1600 Amphitheatre Parkway, Mountain View, CA 94043, USA.

Google Analytics service uses cookie technology. The information generated by the cookie about your use of the Sites is usually transmitted and stored on Google servers in the USA.

We have enabled the IP anonymization feature on the Sites. As a result, your IP address will be anonymized before being sent to the United States. This information is used to compile reports on the Sites activity. The IP address transmitted by your browser as part of Google Analytics is not combined with other data from Google.

You may stop using Google Analytics cookies by selecting the appropriate settings in your browser, however, please note that in this case you will not be able to use all features of the Sites. You can also prohibit Google from collecting data generated by cookies and related to your use of the Sites (including your IP address), and also prohibit Google from processing these data by downloading and installing the browser plug-in, available at the following link: <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=ru>

You can prohibit Google Analytics from collecting your information by clicking the following link. The cookie will be set to refuse to collect your data on subsequent visits to this Site. Disable Google Analytics.

For more information on how Google Analytics uses the user data, see the Google Privacy Policy: <https://support.google.com/analytics/answer/6004245?hl=ru>.

2) Yandex.Metrika Service

The sites use the web analytics service Yandex.Metrika provided by the company YANDEX LLC, 16, L. Tolstogo St., Moscow, Russia 119021 (hereinafter referred to as Yandex).

Yandex.Metrika service uses cookie technology.

The information collected by cookie cannot identify you, but it can help us improve the performance of the Sites. Information about your use of the Sites, collected via a cookie, will be transferred to Yandex and stored on a Yandex server in the EU and the Russian Federation. Yandex will process this information to evaluate your use of the Sites and to compile reports on the Sites activity. Yandex processes this information in the manner prescribed by the terms of use of Yandex.Metrika service.

You may refuse the use of Yandex.Metrika cookies by selecting the appropriate settings in the browser. Also you may use the instrument – <https://yandex.ru/support/metrika/general/opt-out.html>. However, this may affect operation of the Sites certain features. By using the Sites, you agree to the data processing about you by Yandex in the manner and for the purposes stated above.

12. UPDATING OF THIS POLICY

We have the right to make changes to this Policy taking into account changes in legislation and in connection with changes in the work of the Sites. All changes are subject to publication on the Sites. If the changes directly or indirectly affect your rights, we will send you a notice by email and/or using the Site.

14. CONTACTS
